

Welcome

Welcome to the International College of Management, Sydney (ICMS), Aspire Institute, Aspire English and International Sport College, Australia (ISCA).

All four leading educational institutions fall under the same company (ICMS), but are uniquely positioned to offer students the degree or diploma that suits them on their path towards fulfilling their personal and professional potential.

The International College of Management, Sydney (ICMS) is an award-winning higher education institution with campuses in Manly and Sydney's business district. Founded in 1996, ICMS is a leader in career-focused, quality education and offers undergraduate and postgraduate courses that are recognised in the same manner as all public universities in Australia.

ISCA is a perfect fusion of high performance training coupled with sports business principles; the Diploma of Sports Management (High Performance) is a perfect fusion of high performance training coupled with sports business principles. This innovative program gives students the opportunity to turn their love of the game into a comprehensive understanding of the professional global sports industry. It offers a unique opportunity for students who are looking to stay in their sport while starting their higher education.

Aspire Institute offers foundation, undergraduate and postgraduate courses as stand-alone qualifications or, should you wish to further your studies, you could choose to use your qualification as a pathway into a bachelor or other program at ICMS, or one of the distinguished Australian universities and colleges that Aspire has partnered with.

Aspire English programs are ideal for students who meet the academic requirements for our pathways but need or would like additional English language proficiency before commencing study.
