General to Low risk indicators:

High risk indicators of crisis, self-harm or suicidal behaviours:

Identification of high risk indicators by a Wellness Officer (or any other staff member within the institution)

Conduct an assessment to identify risk factors, history, current thoughts, plans and protective factors

Determine the risk level or intervention and choose appropriate intervention to address and reduce the risk

Document the assessment of risk, intervention and follow-up