NB. Although designed for external applicants the admission criteria outlined in this document also apply to the Institution's current students wishing to pathway to a higher-level qualification within the Institution.

1 The application process

1.1 How to apply

Applicants must complete an application form, submission of either a digital (website) or hard copy application is acceptable.

Digital applications may be made via the below websites:

- International College of Management, Sydney - www.icms.edu.au
- ASPIRE Institute - www.aspire.edu.au
- International Sports College Australia - www.iscaustralia.edu.au

For more specific information regarding applications please refer to the following:

- Admissions Policy

For information regarding credit transfer and recognition of prior learning please refer to the following:

- Advanced Standing Policy
- Advanced Standing Procedures

1.2 Documents required for an application

Applications must include:

- Completed application form
- Original or certified academic evidence that demonstrates the applicant satisfies the entry requirements for the qualification for which they have applied. This includes, but is not limited to, official transcripts, records of results, graduation certificates (if applicable)
- Certified copy of a valid passport, a certified copy of a birth certificate or, for domestic applicants only, a certified copy of a valid Australian or New Zealand driving licence or other government-issued photo identification
- Original or certified English language proficiency (if applicable)
- Original or certified work experience evidence (if applicable)
- Other documentary evidence as requested

1.2.1 Submission of documents

All certified documents submitted as part of an application must be clear, legible, and provided as scanned copies or PDFs of the original official documents. The entire document must be visible, including all corners and edges. Documents that are cropped, blurry, dark, cut off, incomplete, or only partially visible will be deemed invalid and will not be accepted.

1.3 Translation of application documents

All official documents in any language other than English must be accompanied by an official translation into English bearing the stamp and signature of a certified translator. Translators in Australia must be certified by the National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters (NAATI).

1.4 Certifying documents

A certified document is a copy of an original document that has been certified as being a true copy of the original by an authorised person as per paragraph 1.5.

It is signed and stamped “I certify that this is a true copy of the original”

The person certifying the photocopies must sign it and print the following details:

- Name
- Contact number
- Date of verification

And

- Official stamp or seal of the certifier

1.5 Authorised persons for purposes of certification

1.7 Offers of admission

Applicants are encouraged to apply as soon as possible. Application deadlines are published on the ICMS website.

Upon assessment of an application, a Letter of Offer, Conditional Letters of Offer or Letters of Decline are issued as soon as practicable. Applications for advanced standing are subject to a more detailed assessment process and, as a result, may require additional processing time compared to standard admissions applications.

Applicants who wish to accept an offer to a course must do so by the means specified in their Letter of Offer.

1.8 Deferral of an offer of admission

Applicants with an offer of admission who wish to defer their course commencement date are required to defer in accordance with the Deferral Procedures.

1.9 Conditional Confirmation of Enrolment

At the discretion of the Institution, a conditional Confirmation of Enrolment (Conditional CoE) may be issued to a commencing international applicant if they need to lodge a student visa application before all conditions on an offer to a course have been met.

To be eligible for a Conditional COE the applicant must meet the following requirements:

- the applicant is a school leaver in their final period of study and the final transcript of that period of study is to be used to meet the academic requirements for the course listed on the letter of offer;
- the applicant demonstrates evidence of meeting the academic entry requirements of the course in their most recent certified academic results;
- the applicant has met the English language proficiency requirements for the chosen course;
- to be eligible to commence studies after receiving a Conditional COE and receive a full offer, the applicant must submit their final certified academic transcript and completion certificate (if applicable) to the Institution; and
- meet all other requirements noted in their letter of offer;

If the applicant fails to provide evidence of meeting the academic entry requirements for their course (i.e. their most recent and final academic transcripts) at least 30 days prior to the course commencement date of the first period of study, the student's Conditional CoE will be cancelled and the student is given the option to defer to the next intake should their academic transcripts be provided at a later date and satisfy requirements.

Postgraduate

Country	Academic requirement
All	Completed at least one semester of study in an approved postgraduate program at a recognised exchange partner institution.

6.12 Non-award study

Non-award study means enrolment in certain award course subjects or enrolment in subjects which are not part of an award course but are developed for a specific purpose or target student group and which are not undertaken as part of an award course.

While non-award study includes study abroad and student exchange, a separate application is required to formalise the details and requirements for study abroad and student exchange.

6.13 Cross institutional study

A course of study comprising a subject (or subjects) which is being undertaken at this Institution (the "host" higher education provider) as part of an award course or an enabling course for which the student is enrolled at another Australian higher education provider (the "home" higher education provider). Incoming cross-institutional students are classified as non-award.

6.14 Overseas qualification equivalency

Overseas qualifications are assessed for equivalency to an Australian qualification using the Department of Education's Country Education Profiles (CEP)'s online recognition tool and equivalency guides for Australian Tertiary Admission Rank (ATAR) for non-Australian qualifications and ATAR equivalency scores.

7 Entry Pathways

7.1 Applicants with Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander background

7.1.1 Criteria for admission

Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander applicants can apply with either recent secondary education (within the last two years), Vocational Education and Training (VET) study and/or work and life experience (completed secondary education more than two years ago) as outlined in section 7.2. Applicants must also provide “Confirmation of Aboriginality or Torres Strait Islander Heritage” at the time of their application (or at their interview).

7.2 Work and Life Experience

Applicants, who are over 18 years of age, and completed secondary education more than two years ago, may be eligible for admission based on specific work and life experience.

Undergraduate applicants are required to provide evidence of at least two years of full-time paid work experience.

Postgraduate applicants are required to provide evidence of at least five years of appropriate full-time managerial or professional work experience. This evidence must be well documented and include the following:

- a CV/ resume
- at least two reference letters or statements of service
- job descriptions; and
- a completed Statement of Purpose form.

Statements of service or signed reference letters must be on company letterhead. If an applicant has been self-employed, they should supply a statement from their accountant, solicitor or tax agent.

Applicants may also wish to provide evidence of formal, informal or non-formal study, completed or partially completed, which demonstrates a reasonable prospect of success in the course applied for.

All evidence provided by the applicant will be verified for authenticity.

8 Other Admissions Options

Applicants may be offered admission to a course based on non-ATAR application pathways. The Institutions assesses an applicant using criteria other than (or in addition to) an ATAR.

8.1 Early Entry Scheme

Applicants may be offered admission to a course based on academic performance in Year 11, and/or Year 12 prior to sitting their final examinations.

8.1.1 Criteria for admission

Assessment for early entry is based on:

- a personal statement;
- Year 11 results; and
- Year 12 Semester 1 results or trial HSC (or equivalent) results.

The required average for results is 60%.

8.2 Schools Recommendation Scheme (SRS)

The Schools Recommendation Scheme (SRS) is a program managed by the Universities Admissions Centre (UAC) that allows institutions to make early offers of undergraduate admission to Year 12 students based on criteria other than (or in addition to) the ATAR. This scheme is designed to recognise the potential of students who may not have achieved the highest ATAR but have demonstrated other qualities and achievements that indicate their ability to succeed at university.

8.2.1 Criteria for admission

Assessment for SRS is based on:

- a school rating of the applicant's learning/aptitude of R2 or above;
- predicted ATAR of 50 or above; and
- an application interview.

Applications are made through the Universities Admissions Centre (UAC).

8.3 Leadership Entry Program

Applicants may be offered admission to a course based on significant leadership in their school or community.

8.3.1 Criteria for admission

Applicants for the Leadership Entry Program must be completing Year 12 and are either a School Captain/Vice-Captain, Prefect or Student Representative Council President/Vice President or member or have demonstrated leadership through their involvement with community organisations and clubs.

Assessment for the Leadership Entry Program is based on:

- a personal statement;
- Year 11 results; and
- Year 12 semester 1 results or trial HSC (or equivalent) results; and

The required average for results is 60%.

8.4 Elite Athletes/Performers

The elite athletes and performers pathway is for students whose sporting or performing arts commitments may have impacted on their studies.

8.4.1 Criteria for admission

To be considered an elite athlete an applicant must have represented their school or state at national level competition during Years 11 and/or 12.

To be considered an elite performer, an applicant must have performed in extended or significant productions during Years 11 and/or 12.

Assessment for elite athletes and performers is based on:

- a personal statement;
- Year 11 results; and
- Year 12 semester 1 results or trial HSC (or equivalent) results; and

The required average for results is 60%.

8.5 Special Entry Access Scheme (SEAS)

SEAS, or special consideration, is a pathway that gives special consideration to applicants who have faced financial hardship, a disability or medical condition or difficult life of family challenges to applicants seeking admission into a course at the Institution.

8.5.1 Criteria for admission

Each application is assessed individually based on the evidence provided by the applicant to support their circumstances. Applications must include supporting documentation, for example, a medical practitioner's report. Admission will be determined on a case-by-case basis by the DVC (Learning and Teaching).
